Tower Choir Has Balance of Voices With 50 Members

According to Director Gilbert A. Whitney, the Tower Choir has the best balance of voices that it has had in recent years. The choir consists of 27 women and 23 men.

Several appearances are scheduled for the choir, including the Christmas Ball and a colorful winter concert. This year, the group's over-all program will feature three areas of music—a religious group, an operatic selection, and a group of American selections.

At this time the Tower Choir is working on "La Boheme," an opera in four acts, written by Puccini. "La Boheme" will be featured in the winter concert and also will be sung on the choir's annual tour.

Art Students Visit Nelson Art Gallery

Art students, accompanied by Miss Olive DeLuce and Mrs. Dean Dorman, recently visited the Nelson Art gallery in Kansas City.

To give the students a brief view of some of Kansas City's art attractions, the group went by the Union Station, the Peace Memorial, the "Pioneer Woman," and Dullin's "American Scout."

An assistant in the gallery's oriental department conducted the group on an hour's tour of the Chinese exhibit. Buddhas, lacquer and jade work, bronze pieces, and porcelainware were among the many works represented. The new Volker Memorial Fountain was also visited.

Interest was centered on the current display of the Hallmark International Exhibit of Contemporary Art during the afternoon tour.

Prizes worth several hundred dollars are to be given to the artists whose works are liked best by visitors, and the college students voted for their choices.

If it is necessary that your draft board be notified of your college attendance please report to the Registrar's Office IMMEDIATELY.

Den Movie to Be 'Executive Suite'

"Executive Suite" will be the Den movie presentation at 7:15, Friday, October 17. The movie stars William Holden, June Allyson, Barbara Stanwyck, Frederick March, Walter Pidgeon, Shelley Winters, Paul Douglas, Louis Calhern, and Dean Jagger.

"Executive Suite" presents the story of a big business dynasty and the men and women who are enmeshed in a web of conflict when the head of a corporation dies. The film is based on Cameron Hawley's best-seller novel of the American business world.

The film is an M-G-M presentation, and will run an hour and forty-four minutes.

Men in Quad Six Have Co-operation

Mrs. Blanche Damewood, house mother for newly-enlarged Quad Six, reports that it takes a strong central organization and a great deal of co-operation to supervise 188 men housed under one roof.

With the new dormitory addition, the total number of Quad Six student residents has tripled. Adjustments are being made, however, and to the complete satisfaction of Mrs. Damewood.

"I enjoy every minute of it," she reports. "The co-operation I have received has been wonderful."

Lon Wilson, Dean of Men, has appointed eleven Quad Six men to assist Mrs. Damewood. Quad Six supervisors are John Amabile, Lon Bruggeman, Wade Bruggeman, Odie Cate, Joe Davis, Larry Gardner, Robert K. James, Carl McLaughlin, Richard Popp, Dick Rowland, and Earl Tomlin.

Adjustment to the sudden growth of Quad Six had not been without its problems. But according to Dick Rowland, spokesman for Mrs. Damewood's assistants, the men of Quad Six have been most co-operative.

"Within a few days," reports Dick, "we'll be functioning like an independent city."

Newspapers of Ghana Are Available in College Library

Students who are interested in reading the Ghana newspapers may find them on the newspaper shelf in the Browsing Room of the library, reports the Librarian.

Judges Choose Finalists For Homecoming Queen

Five girls were chosen as final candidates for the honor of 1958 Homecoming Queen at preliminary judging held during the Walk-Out Day Variety Show Wednesday, October 8. They were chosen from a field of 19 representatives of various campus organizations.

Ag Club to Attend Kansas City Royal

Members of the Ag Club have voted to attend the 1958 American Royal Livestock and Horse Show to be held in Kansas City, according to Charles Knorr, Ag Club president.

Approximately thirty agriculture students will leave the campus at 6:00 a. m., Saturday, October 18, by chartered bus. American Royal activities will begin at 8:00 a. m. The group will return to Maryville Saturday evening.

Along with viewing all of the varied activities of the American Royal, agriculture students who are trying out for the livestock judging team will do practice judging under the direction of F. B. Houghton, member of the college agriculture department.

Transportation, admission, and reservation expenses for the trip will be shared by the group, at a total cost of $2.25 per person.

Forensic Students Plan for Full Year

Debate and discussion students are already hard at work preparing for the various tournaments.

They will participate in the Kansas State Novice Debate Tournament and the Bradley University Speech Tournament in Peoria, Illinois, the latter part of November. In December they will go to the University of Arkansas to participate in another tournament. They will also go to Southwestern Debate Tournament in Winfield, Kansas.

In January the debaters will participate in the William Jewell "Blizzard" Tournament. Also during January, the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, which was instituted this fall, will sponsor the annual Northwest Missouri State College Debate Tournament. Other speech tournaments will also be attended during the second semester.

Anyone interested in debate, discussion, oratory, extempore speaking, or any other forensic events should see Mr. George A. Hinshaw in room 118.

President Names Taylor as Liaison

President J. W. Jones has named Dr. John Taylor as the liaison officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation, an educational foundation located in St. Louis, two or not to exceed three candidates for the 1959 fellowships.

College senior men and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career of college teaching and are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1959, for their first year of graduate study with or without financial need are invited to apply.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by January 31, 1959. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with Dr. John Taylor.

Regents Prohibit Agents on Campus During Set Hours

President J. W. Jones announces that a policy concerning soliciting on the campus has been adopted by the Board of Regents.

This policy prohibits agents, solicitors, peddlers, or any such persons, from soliciting, selling, or offering anything for sale to any teacher or student in Northwest Missouri State College, while it is in session, or for one-half hour before school convenes and one-half hour after school is dismissed.

Such persons may be given special permission by President Jones to sell articles, subscriptions, or policies, but that permission must be on the agent's person.

Students May Help By Blood Donation

Four years ago, when the wife of a student had an emergency operation, and it was necessary to get several pints of blood for her, the college Blood Donor list was started. From that experience, it has been decided to keep a list of students who will volunteer to donate blood to College personnel when it is needed.

Last year about seventy requests for blood were met, totaling about 200 pints. The students help on an entirely voluntary basis.

If students wish to volunteer for this service, arrangements will be made to have their blood typed without charge. See Bob Owens, student body president, for details.

Dean of Men Has Requests for Help

Any student desiring part-time work should register at the office of the Dean of Men. The student's name, address, telephone number and the type of work preferred will be placed on file.

When someone is needed for part-time work, the Dean of Men will be able to find a student who wants that type of work.

Fall is a busy season, and the people in town need help badly in many different types of work, so file as soon as possible.

First Speech Production to Be 'Teahouse of the August Moon'

"The Teahouse of the August Moon," winner of the Critics Circle and Pulitzer awards, is to be presented November 20 and 21 in the auditorium of the Administration building, by the Speech Department.

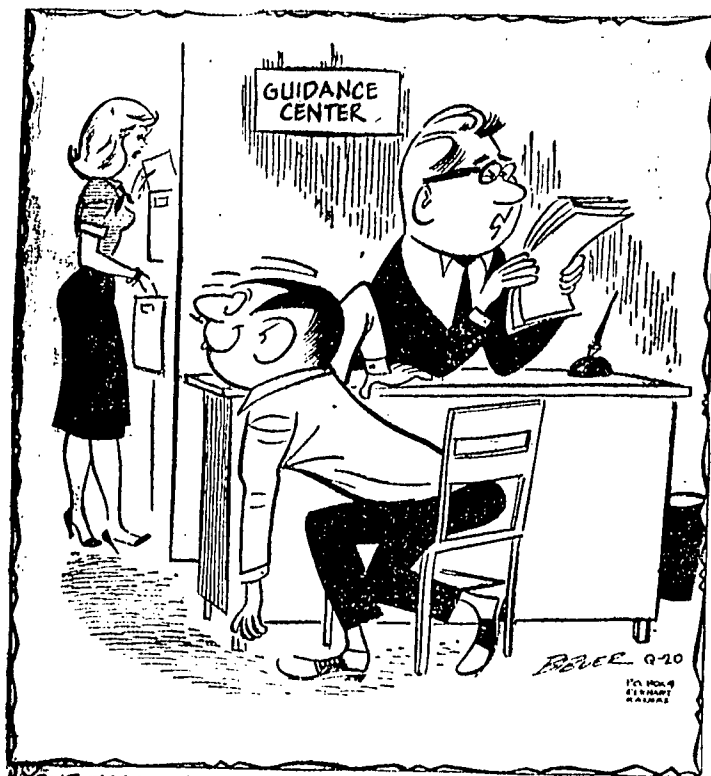

"The Teahouse of the August Moon" is a comedy taking place in Okinawa. It is the duty of an Army of Occupation officer stationed in a small town to teach democracy to the natives. In brilliantly bungling his assignment, in letting the Okinawans money toward democracy rather than glumly face it in formation, he demonstrates the superiority of the human heart over the military mind.

Many Students Are in Cast

Members of the cast include the following: Dan DeMott, Sakini; John Quastler, Sergeant Gregovich; Delbert Smith, Colonel Wainwright III; Floyd Worley, Captain Flsby; Bonnie Warner, Old Woman; Ruth Curfman, Old Woman's Daughter;

Robin Foster, Jackie Garrett, and George Faris, The Daughter's Children; Our goat, Lady Astor; John Meek, Ancient Man; Curtis Pritchard, Mr. Hokaida; Dave Vos, Mr. Omura; Rodger Hitt, Mr. Sumata; Leon Walker, Mr. Sumata's Father; Ameri Joe de la Cruz, Mr. Seiko.

Eileen Rittmann, Miss Higa Jiga; Ed Flanery, Mr. Keora; Don Evans, Mr. Oshira; Tom Mooberry, Jerry Butler, and three other men yet to be cast, Villagers; Marilyn Gillis, Rosalee Anderson, Pat Murphy, and Susan Grube, Ladies' League for Democratic Action; Janice Wilkinson, Lotus Blossom; and Bill Price, Captain McLean. Magill Appoints AAUP Committees For Coming Year

Miss Bonnie Magill, president of the American Association of University Professors, has appointed committees for the coming year.

Members of the program committee are Mr. Elwyn K. DeVore—chairman, Mrs. Lula Mae Sheetz, Mr. James Johnson, Mrs. Karamanelli Oshwald, Mr. Donald F. Peel, Mr. H. D. Petersen, Mr. Charles Rivers, Mr. John L. Smay, and Mr. Ralph E. Fulsom. The time and place committee consists of the following: Miss Kathryn S. Riddle—chairman, Miss Mary Keith, Mr. Charles H. Hyde, Mr. Richard A. Oshwald, Mr. Myles C. Grabau, and Miss Dorothy L. Weigand.

Membership

The membership committee is headed by Mr. George Gayler. The remainder of the committee is as follows: Mr. Luther Blatt, Mr. William A. Lafferty, and Mr. Earle Moss. Miss Violette Hunter and Mrs. Alice G. Wilson are in charge of publicity.

Arrangements for the Honors Banquet will be made by the following: Thelma Long—chairman, Miss Ruth Miller, Miss Mabel Cook, Mrs. Doris Pierce, Mr. Howard A. George, Miss Laura F. Jackson, and Mr. Berndt G. Angman. Selection of the honorees for the Honors Banquet will be the duty of the following: Mrs. Marjorie Person—chairman, Mr. George A. Hinshaw, Mr. Harry A. Galley, Mr. M. T. Sheldon, and Mrs. Elaine Mauzey.

Faculty Welfare

The faculty welfare committee is composed of Mr. John Taylor—chairman, Mr. William Garrett, Mr. John L. Harr, Miss Irene Mueller, and Mr. J. Gordon Strong.

Officers of the American Association of University Professors are Miss Magill, president; Mr. George Gayler, vice-president; Mr. Dale J. Blackwell, secretary; and Mr. Myrl D. Long, treasurer.

The Stroller . . .

The Stroller is hoping that everyone, especially the M Club members, has fully recovered from Walk-Out Day. He doesn't advise a daily swim in Sweetheart Lake.

Like everyone else, the Stroller is wondering who the annual Homecoming Queen will be. He is certainly glad that he didn't have to be one of the judges who had to pick the top five. Really, NWMSC is full of beauty when it is revealed.

One afternoon in the Bearcat Den the Stroller overheard some girls discussing the weather and wishing it would make up its mind so that they wouldn't have to be switching from summer to winter clothes every other day. He decided they did have a problem.

The Stroller was wondering when he got back from the Walk-Out Day dance if everyone got his shoes as wet as he did. It was a messy evening, but the Stroller is sure that everyone at the dance had a nice—but also a hot and perspiring time.

Freshman Sheds Beanie Before Liberation Day

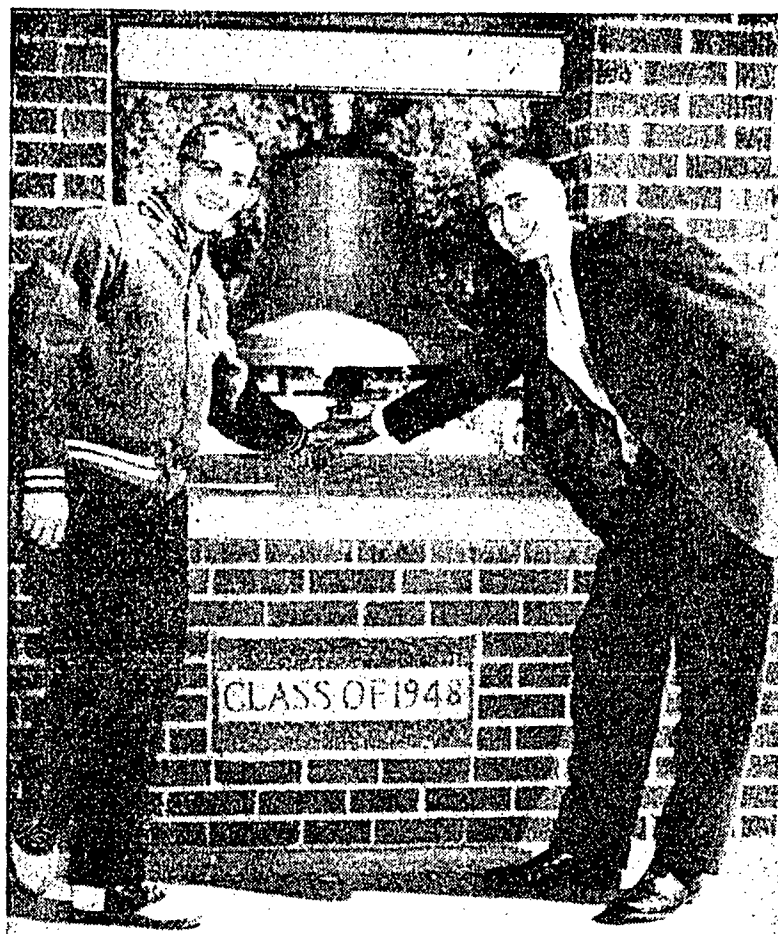

At least one freshman boy learned the consequences of going without his beanie before Walk-Out Day.

Because he wanted to look his best for the Monday night after-dinner dance, he decided not to wear the trademark of his freshman status. He might have been ahead if he had worn his little green beanie because some M club members decided to do something about the lack of cooperation.

With a large crowd following, the boy was escorted to the gymnasium where he received a "close" haircut!

New Stamp Honors Press

On Sept. 22 the new 4 cent stamp went on sale in Columbia in honor of journalism, the freedom of the press, and the University of Missouri School of Journalism.

Campus Bell Signals Beginning Of Exciting Day for Freshmen

Walkout Day started in the traditional manner with the ringing of the large bell in front of the Administration building, Wednesday, October 8, by Bob Owens, president of the Student Senate and Charles Goff, president of the "M" Club.

Within a split second, the halls were filled with excited students. Since all doors were strictly guarded by "M" Club members, everyone in the Ad building had to exit at the front door. All the students gathered in front of the building, and the freshmen were surrounded by the "M" Club.

Boys Race for Dates

At this time the boys were "asked" to race around the Administration building for their choice of a date for the day. After the second time around, many forgot who their choice was.

Freshmen girls were then asked to wear their partner's shirt, and the boys to roll their trouser legs to the knees. A procession which headed for the courthouse was then formed by the couples.

Quacking Could Be Heard

On the journey to the courthouse, all manner of things happened. The boys were compelled to walk on their hands while the girls gave leg support. Everyone "duck-walked" a short spell and a quacking sound was heard for some distance.

Everyone walked backwards for a time, buttoned many times, skipped a while, and at last was permitted to take a breather while three of the freshmen cheerleaders led Bearcat yells. Well, not everyone rested. A few boys stood on their heads with the aid of their dates for a moment or two.

Some Carry Dates, But Not Far A procession was formed once again. This time everyone joined hands and did the "snake dance" for a block or so. Now, the boys began carrying their dates. After a short time, a few boys were caught resting their dates on car fenders.

While the townspeople gaped, everyone gathered in the courtyard, the destination. Here, many punishments were carried out by the Great Court of Justice on those unfortunates who had their name on the black list. Many were given their breakfast, received shampoos, or received a free hair cut.

Battle With Flour

After a few announcements and another buttoning session, the procession started down Third Street, across by Grand Avenue to the College Park, and on to the baseball field west of the Armory. Here the "M" Club members and freshmen boys pelted each other with sacks of flour.

This duel soon led to other things, such as—"M" Club members being carried to the pond where quite a battle of odds took place. One by one people were tossed into the pond, until even the girls took part.

Judging of Queens Follows

Everyone was entertained at the Variety Show held at the Tivoli Theatre during the afternoon. The judging of the 10 queen contestants and a movie followed.

The Walkout Dance began at 9 o'clock and lasted to midnight. Despite the heat and showers, everyone had a wonderful evening and there was a large attendance.

Thelma Long Returns Home Early This Week

Miss Thelma Long, of the home economics department, returned Monday from her home in Washington, Iowa, where she had been called because of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Laura Young, 97.

Miss Long's father, Mr. John Long, ill for several weeks, has returned home from the hospital.

Special Music to Be Used

Background music, written especially for this play, is to be used. A new and interesting type of staging will be used. This staging, known as simultaneous staging, cuts down on the scene changes and cuts down on the time that it takes to make these changes. Costuming for this play is very elaborate. The effect of the play depends partly on the costumes and the wigs that will be worn to lend reality to it. Make-up will intensify the realistic atmosphere of an Okinawan village.

Advertising for "The Teahouse of the August Moon" will be very extensive. Posters of Geisha girls, signs, and special window displays will be used. Mr. Blatt is designing and directing all advertising activities.

Dramatics seem to be on the climb upward this year. The number of students that turned out to read for this play is the largest that has read for any play for quite some time.

Some Do Not Attend . . .

Many leading religious educators believe a serious oversight of some American students is that of not attending the church of their choice.

Many students do not bother to rationalize. Late sleepers, last minute housekeepers, and panicky studiers make no bones about staying home.

However valid these collegiate excuses may be, they can usually be argued down by a regular church-goer. The tired body and spirit can nearly always be revived by the quiet peace found in a worship service.

Strength to carry on daily studies, new will, and determination may be found there.

Nearly everyone can afford an hour or two a week for cards, Den-ology or TV. He can also find an hour for God.

See YOU in church Sunday!

Drama Club Meets At Bladt Apartment

Twenty-one members of the Drama Club had dinner recently at Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bladt's apartment. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Fulsom were present.

After the evening meal, the business meeting was held. Diane Mark and Betty Ambrose were appointed to prepare a list of names by which the organization might be called. The members will choose a new name at the next meeting.

Plans for Homecoming were discussed. The clowns will be Diane Mark — chairman, Janet Lents, Mary Ellen Kelley, Suzanne Kite- llinger, and Paul Barker. Rae Ann Nixon will help with the costumes. Marilyn Gillis was appointed chair- man of the committee to select plays. Others on the committee are Carolyn Cummings and Linda Cum- ingtonham.

Quad 2 Residents Invest in Leisure

With some free time from their studies on their hands, the boys in Quad Two felt the need for a television set.

Not to be stopped by the cost, several invested $1.50 each and purchased a second-hand set. Stu- dents in other buildings have also bought used sets, and others are planning to do so.

At present the only problem is that there is some difficulty in selecting a program to satisfy everyone's taste. Possibly this is only an indication of a problem bound to arise come May 28: How will be set be divided?

Students Attend Conference

Joyce Barnes, Robert Kruse, Anna Lou Karrasch, Judy Horn, Mary Kay Beason, and Miss Violette Hunter, sponsor of the Northwest Missourian, attended a journalism workshop in Colum- bia, Friday, October 10.

Weddings— and Pinnings

Congratulations are in order for Rosalie McCrary, Alpha Sigma Alpha, and Don Kixmiller, Phi Sig- ma Epsilon, who were pinned in front of Residence Hall last Tues- day night.

Best wishes to Kay Taylor, Alpha Sigma Alpha and Don Riley, Sig- ma Tau Gamma, whose pinning ceremony was September 23.

Congratulations to Peggy Riley, Alpha Sigma Alpha, and Harold Wilkinson, Sigma Tau Gamma, on their surprise pinning ceremony, September 16.

September 7 marked the date of the marriage of Suellyn Canon, Alpha Sigma Alpha, to Marlan Ray of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity. Marland, a senior phys- ical education major, has returned to school while Suellyn is employ- ed at the ASC office in Maryville.

Married August 30 at Marshall, were Deanie Sherard and Butch Kavanaugh. Both are seniors this year at NWMSC. The bride is a physical education major, and former editor and secretary of Alpha Sigma Alpha, and present secretary of the Student Senate. The groom, a Phi Sig, is majoring in chemistry and is a member of the varsity bas- ketball team.

Congratulations to Rosellyn Ring- old and Max Voggeser on their marriage this summer. Max, a Phi Sigma Epsilon member, is a sen- ior business major and Rosellyn is a member of the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority.

Two former Alpha Sigma Alpha presidents were married this sum- mer. They were Margie O'Connor, whose husband is Gib Gray of Maryville, and Norma Long, who married Phil Bram from Grant City. Margie is now teaching phys- ical education at Junction City, Kansas, and Norma is employed in the elementary school system at Hopkins.

Congratulations to Donna An- derson and Harold Lynch who were married early in the summer. Don- na is a junior home economics ma- jor and Harold a senior business major. They were affiliated with Alpha Sigma Alpha and Tau Kap- pa Epsilon social organizations.

Four Bearcat Backs to Tangle With Springfield on Saturday

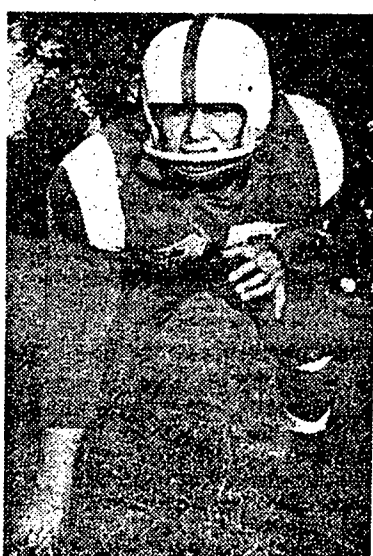

MAX ROSS—Max is a sophomore from Atlantic, Iowa. He was one of the better halfbacks last year but was hampered by injuries most of the season. His major is physical education. He has a minor in business and hopes to work for a master's degree. He is a Sigma Tau.

ALFRED KYLE—Al is a freshman from Winston, and by his play this season shows his potential in the backfield. He is majoring in physical education and plans to get a master's degree. By ability and hard work he has obtained a starting position at left halfback.

ALVIN GASTON—Al is majoring in physical education and has a minor in the social sciences, working toward a B. S. degree. He is a senior from Alexandria, and by his letter last year in football is a member of the M Club. He should be seeing much action this year.

PETE CARRIZALES—Pete, who was also sidelined from several games last year because of injuries, is a junior from Mt. Clemens, Michigan. He has a major in physical education and a minor in industrial arts. Pete is an active in Sigma Tau Gamma and the M Club.

Bearcats Play At Springfield On October 18

On October 18, the Bearcat football team will travel to Springfield to tangle with the Bears of Southwest Missouri State College with the game starting at 8:00 p. m.

The Bearcats, who suffered a 3-0 defeat at the hands of Springfield last year, will be out for revenge Saturday night.

The Bears have chalked up wins over Pittsburg by a 7-6 score and Emporia State 14-0. They lost a close contest to St. Benedict's in the first game of the season 25-21. They have a strong well balanced team and one of their backs, Byble, is one of the top scorers in the conference so far this season.

Maryville has had a bad start this season and some of the main players have been hampered by injuries. Coach Paul Turner is shifting his men around trying to find a good combination with the men in it working well together. Al Kyle and Jim Reiff, both freshman, have been showing up very well in games and should be seeing a lot of action in the future.

Probable starting lineup for Maryville will be the following: Ends, Mickey Nardin and Harold Wilkinson; tackles, Charles Booth and Grant Hilburn; guards, Gene Smith and Vernon Bryant; center, Doyle Thomas; and the backfield is not certain.

Coach Turner has 21 lettermen returning, led by team Captain Gene Smith, a three year letterman holding down a guard position at 5-9 and 195 pounds.

Random Shots . . .

Dick Powell, Bearcat quarterback, is fourth in the M. I. A. A. Conference in passing with a 43.48% completion average and second in punt returns with an 18 yard average.

Also among the leading passers is Jack Boyd, sophomore quarterback, with a 37.5% completion average.

Alfred Kyle is 8th in pass receiving in M. I. A. A. standings with 5 catches for a total of 94 yards, a good 19% average. Mickey Nardin is twelfth in pass receiving with 4 catches and 76 yards.

The leading scorer in the M. I. A. A. football standing is Mills of Kirksville with 49 points. Jim Reiff of Maryville is listed with 7 points.

The M Club gave the freshmen their final initiation Oct. 8 in good style, although some of them got a good soaking in return. There are a few bald headed freshmen running around as a result of the Club.

Bearcats Downed By Cape Indians

A freak touchdown and a third quarter splurge after a first half stand off gave the visiting Cape Girardeau Indians a 33-14 MIAA conference win over the Maryville State Bearcats here Saturday night.

The Bearcats were playing heads up ball all during the first half. They effectively held the Cape ground game and passing to a minimum, while covering ground by rushing and in the air.

It was one of the roughest games played here in recent years. Two Cape Indians and three Bearcats were ejected from the game after personal fouls.
